

"Technology Serving People"

Having served in the United States Military and Corporate America for over 20 years, Tony now works at LMC, a HUB Zone Certified, IT Systems Integrator, where he is the General Manager of the Trenton, NJ Division. Tony joined LMC in an effort to help organizations migrate to a "Green Technology" platform by helping with strategy development through an execution leadership platform. Tony is also President and Co-Founder of Southern Shaolin Academy, a Kung-Fu School located in Ewing, NJ.

Tony received his B.S. in Mechanical Engineering (Energy Systems) from the United States Military Academy; West Point, NY. Tony has also completed various Executive Leadership Develop Courses to include the course sponsored by the London Business School.

As an Officer in the United States Army, Tony served as an Airborne Ranger Infantryman with distinction while deployed to the 1st Gulf War, the Somalia Conflict, Honduras, Panama, Egypt, & Israel, receiving numerous awards & citations while attached to the 10th Mountain Division.

Tony's professional career has led him to work at several prominent organizations including his last assignment as the Vice-President of Branded Pharmaceuticals at AmerisourceBergen where he managed over 40 Billion dollars in contracted spend. AmerisourceBergen, NYSE: ABC is currently ranked 22 on the Fortune 500 business list. His other assignments also included: Nestle Beverage Company; The Dial Corporation; Givaudan Roure; & Roche Pharmaceuticals. Tony also owned a software development company, specializing in inventory management, before the software was acquired by LMC.

Tony is currently on the Supply Chain Management Steering Committee at Rutgers University, helping to bring the best in-class business practices to the students, faculty, & business sponsors of Rutgers' Supply-Chain Academic Programs. Tony has also spoken at numerous Industry-related forums and engages in motivational speaking opportunities.

Tony has completed his first book called "Decisive Leadership" – The Vision to See Beyond (How one person can change a corporation). The book is scheduled to be published 3/1/08. The book is an example of his passion for inspiring leaders to become better leaders. "Decisive Leadership" is designed to help leaders reach a point of balance between their responsibilities to "Corporate America" and the obligations one has to themselves by "Discovering the Way from Within".
